

STRENGTHENING OUR YOUTH... SHAPING OUR COMMUNITY.

2017 will mark the celebration of the Inaugural Edition of The Triangle Tribune's Top Seniors Magazine.

The Triangle Tribune, in conjunction with Wake County Public Schools, honors the academic achievements of top performing, African-American high school seniors throughout Wake County.

Each selected senior that qualifies for and applies to the Top Seniors Scholarship Program receives a celebratory Senior Acknowledgement in the magazine as one of Wake County's Top Seniors or Seniors of Merit. Acknowledgements include their academic achievements, community involvement, and acceptance into top accredited colleges and universities.

Among the applicants, an independent panel of judges select a Senior of the Year and Runner-up to receive College Scholarships for their exemplary level of academic excellence, and a Senior Profile spread in the magazine.

The magazine also serves as a college resource tool for ALL seniors transitioning into college.

Content (may include but not limited to):

- College Prep; Enrollment Info; Campus Life; HBCU Challenges; Combat Dropout Rates.
- Scholarships; Internships; Money Management; Career Assessment; Recruitment Opportunities.
- Essential College-Bound Products & Services.

TOP SENIORS SELECTION PROCESS

Lists of qualifying seniors are submitted by the school system. Each qualifying senior (and parents) are notified with instructions to apply based on the following criteria:

- Essay
- Class Rank & Academic Notorieties
- GPA
- School & Community Activities

Upon evaluation, all selected seniors are acknowledged as Wake County's Top Seniors or Seniors of Merit in the magazine.

An exemplary Senior of the Year and Runner-up are chosen to receive college scholarships.
